

Andrey Tarasevich

Date of Birth: February 19, 1964

Work Experience:

June 2023-present Union of Organizations and Specialists in the Field of Health Management "Health of the Healthy" (Moscow)

Position: Head of the National Competence Center "Mitochondrial Health"

November 2022-present Institute of Interdisciplinary Medicine (Moscow)

Position: Head of the Department of Preventive and Personalized Medicine

September 2018-present Multidisciplinary Medical Center "LANCET", Gelendzhik

Position: Head of the Center for Personalized Medicine

Education:

1981 – 1987 Krasnoyarsk State Medical Institute

Specialization: General Medicine, Diploma with Honours

1988 – 1994 Advanced Training Courses in Anesthesiology and Intensive Care in Moscow, Russia, and Zurich, Switzerland

1995 – 2004 Advanced Training Courses in Healthcare Organization

Krasnoyarsk State Medical University (Krasnoyarsk)

2004 – 2015

Internships in Healthcare Organization at the University Hospitals of Heidelberg, Munich, and Hamburg (Germany) and the Rehabilitation Clinic in Nottwil (Switzerland)

2016-2024 Advanced Training and Specialized Professional Development at leading educational institutions in Moscow and St. Petersburg

Scientific Interests:

Correction of fundamental pathobiochemical processes in the human body (mitochondrial dysfunction, oxidative stress, endothelial dysfunction, chronic systemic inflammation, impaired membrane permeability, and intercellular matrix) through modification of patients' lifestyle and innovative therapeutic methods and technologies. Development and implementation of specialized correction programs in clinical practice for physicians, and more importantly, prevention of age-related chronic diseases.

Community Involvement:

- Since 2010, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the private charitable foundation; SM.CHARITY,, Krasnoyarsk

- Since 2016, Board Member of the National Academy of Active Longevity, Moscow

- Since 2017, Member of the Expert Council of the Association of Distinguished Doctors of Russia, Moscow

- Since 2018, Member of the Scientific Council of CELLGYM Technologies GmbH